

TRUCK OF TAR JACK-KNIFED IN A CORN FIELD

A driver of a tank truck, loaded with tar, fell asleep Thursday night at 11:45 about a half mile north of here on the Harrisburg road, and drifted off the highway, snapped off a guy wire to a utility pole, drove across the highway, straddled a highway department marker, and jack-knifed in a corn field at the Adams County home.

The driver, who gave his name as Lloyd H. Wenger, Myerstown, R. 1, was going south on the Harrisburg road, about 100 yards north of Racco Station WGET when his truck sheared the guy wire, off the east side of the highway. Then it traveled across the road before stopping in the field.

The metal highway sign, which marks the intersection to the Battlefield Avenue, was bent. Wenger was cut about the shoulder, but did not seek medical assistance. The truck was owned by the McIntosh Road Materials Co., of Harrisburg.

Another McIntosh company truck, which was following Wenger, and a local service station tow truck, were used to extricate the vehicle from the field.

5,000 Chinese Slam Pell Mell Into Two Posts On War Front

SEOUL (U)—Up to 5,000 Chinese Reds slammed into two Allied lines tonight in two attacks on the Korean Western Front.

Frontline officers called the new fighting "hot and heavy." It came as truce negotiators were reported to have drawn the Korean cease-fire line in sessions at Panmunjom, a few miles to the south.

The Chinese slammed a regiment—about 2,000 soldiers—at one Allied hill position and about two battalions at another.

One of the positions was Outpost Esther.

The embattled hills were directly south of Outposts Berlin and East Berlin, seized by the Reds this week from troops of the U. S. 1st Marine Division.

Sketchy frontline reports said the Chinese swarmed over Allied positions and locked in hand-to-hand combat with U. N. infantrymen.

Daylight Attack

To the east, four Chinese companies in a daring daylight assault smashed to the crest of the rugged hill overlooking the Kumson River bend after a savage night-long battle with South Koreans.

Reports from the Central Front said the height changed hands three times in bloody close combat.

The U. S. 8th Army reported Allied artillery caught five Chinese companies—about 800 soldiers—in the open in the Kumson-Kumson valley on the Central Front and killed or wounded 270 Reds.

American and South Korean troops overpowered the Reds in six of nine other small but savage battles across the war-torn peninsula.

Many of the tourists have spoken to the guides after the completion of the field tour about the fine impression of the battlefield they received from the guides. The informant, who is close to the truce talks but cannot otherwise be identified, said only a last-minute hitch stemming from President Syngman Rhee's opposition could block the signing.

The informant said announcement of the signing date could be expected today. He said he did not know the contemplated hour of the ceremony which would formalize a cease-fire in the war, now more than three years old.

The signing date probably was set, tentatively at least, by senior military officers at a meeting in Panmunjom Friday afternoon.

A full-dress session of the main delegation might be held today to approve the date.

Because he is believed to be a faithful party member, Cretic is able to visit a Communist-run hangout, the Skyline Ranch, where the notorious MVD agent, Krasnov, is hiding. The agent is important because he is instrumental in distributing big money in the party. Cretic is to aid in his capture, for the FBI must know the use of these funds. While supposedly enjoying a vacation, he encounters a charming girl, a party comrade named Connie. Feeling that she knows Krasnov's identity, Cretic becomes friends with Connie and convinces her that he is a hard-working and trustworthy party member. Trying to trick Connie, he tells her of a coming FBI raid. She becomes frightened and tells him that the money which Krasnov has must not be found, for it is to be used to . . .

Time in WGET Sunday night at 7 o'clock to hear the thrilling climax to this true story.

Here And There News Collected At Random

As a boy, Horace Greeley was fascinated by the printed word. It was natural, therefore, that at the age of 15 he tramped the 11 miles from his home to East Poultney, Vermont, to become an apprentice in the printing shop of The Northern Spectator. Four years later, in the summer of 1830, the publication failed and young Greeley spent the ensuing year alternately working on his father's new farm near Elm, Pa., and in small country printing shops. When he could stand this unhappy life no longer, he set out for New York on foot and by canal boat arriving with his bundle of clothes and ten dollars on August 18, 1831.

Greeley's first year and a half in the great city found him occupied in various newspaper offices. Growing restless and weary of working for others, he decided it was time to launch his own business and between 1833 and 1840 he founded and published four different newspapers! They were far from being financial successes, but the eager young journalist gained much in good will and editorial experience.

Then, with $1,000 of borrowed capital, he established The Tribune on April 10, 1841. Following a policy of laboring to advance the interests of the people, and to promote their moral, social and political well-being, Greeley fearlessly published the Tribune for three decades. He strongly opposed capital punishment ("the worst use a man could be put to is to hang him"), but he editorialized at length in favor of women's rights (including the right to wear bloomers). He (Continued on Page 2)

Expect Truce Next Monday

SEOUL, Saturday, July 25 (U)—A usually reliable source said last night that the Korean armistice probably will be signed Sunday. Official confirmation was lacking.

The informant, who is close to the truce talks but cannot otherwise be identified, said only a last-minute hitch stemming from President Syngman Rhee's opposition could block the signing.

The informant said announcement of the signing date could be expected today. He said he did not know the contemplated hour of the ceremony which would formalize a cease-fire in the war, now more than three years old.

The signing date probably was set, tentatively at least, by senior military officers at a meeting in Panmunjom Friday afternoon.

A full-dress session of the main delegation might be held today to approve the date.

TRUCK OF TAR JACK-KNIFES IN A CORN FIELD

A driver of a tank truck, loaded with tar, fell asleep Thursday night at 11:45 about a half mile north of here on the Harrisburg road, and drifted off the highway, snapped off a guy wire to a utility pole, drove across the highway, straddled a highway department marker, and jack-knifed in a corn field at the Adams County home.

The driver, who gave his name as Lloyd H. Wenger, Myerstown R. 1, was going south on the Harrisburg road, about 100 yards north of Radio Station WGET when his truck sheared the guy wire, off the east side of the highway. Then it traveled across the road before stopping in the field.

The metal highway sign, which marks the intersection to the Battlefield Avenue, was bent. Wenger was cut about the shoulder, but did not seek medical assistance. The truck was owned by the McIntosh Road Materials Co., of Harrisburg.

Another McIntosh company truck, which was following Wenger, and a local service station tow truck, were used to extricate the vehicle from the field.

5,000 Chinese Slam Pell Mell Into Two Posts On War Front

SEOUL (AP)—Up to 5,000 Chinese Reds slammed into Allied lines to night in two attacks on the Korean Western Front.

Frontline officers called the new fighting "hot and heavy." It came as truce negotiators were reported to have drawn the Korean cease-fire line in sessions at Panmun-jom, a few miles to the south.

The Chinese rammed a regiment about 2,800 soldiers—at one Allied hill position and about two battalions at another.

One of the positions was Outpost Esther.

The embattled hills were directly south of Outposts Berlin and East Berlin, seized by the Reds this week from troops of the U. S. 1st Marine Division.

Sketchy frontline reports said the Chinese swarmed over Allied positions and locked in hand-to-hand combat with U. N. infantrymen.

Daylight Attack

To the east, four Chinese companies in a daring daylight assault smashed to the crest of the rugged hill overlooking the Kumsong River bend after a savage night-long battle with South Koreans.

Reports from the Central Front said the height changed hands three times in bloody close combat.

The U. S. 8th Army reported Allied artillery caught five Chinese companies—about 800 soldiers—in the open in the Kumsong-Kumsong valley on the Central Front and killed or wounded 270 Reds.

American and South Korean troops overpowered the Reds in six of nine other small but savage battles along the war-torn peninsula.

Bloody Fighting

The South Koreans caught the brunt of what could be some of the final fighting in the 3-year war. They counterattacked on four Central front hills lost to the Reds this week, and recaptured one in a bloody fight with hand grenades and rifle butts.

Bitter fighting continued on the other three hills near the Kumsong River.

Allied machine guns and artillery tore up three Chinese assaults by about 150 men each northeast of Kumsong, western anchor of Allied lines on the Central Front and a vital Allied road junction.

On the Western Front, soldiers of the U. S. 7th Infantry Division hurled back two similar Red assaults against Outposts Dale and West View both in the irregular low hill area around Old Baldy and Pork Chop Hills.

Carleton Poole's newspaper career began with the former Niagara Press at Lockport. That paper amalgamated with the Union Sun journal in Lockport a few years later and Mr. Poole worked with that paper as reporter and later city editor until he came to The Gettysburg Times in the fall of 1945.

As a young man he worked briefly in Washington for the government.

He entered the armed forces in Lockport June 16, 1918, and received his discharge December 10 of the same year at Camp Jackson, S. C.

Winger, in giving the sentences, said Pogue would be returned first to Eastern Penitentiary to serve out the year remaining on a sentence given by the Adams County Court in February, 1952. Pogue was sent to the Eastern Penitentiary in February, 1952, to serve from one to two years on a burglary and larceny charge here. He was placed on parole by the State Board of Pardons this year.

The commission of the Franklin County crimes, to which he had entered pleas of guilty, constituted a violation of the parole and he must return to serve out the full sentence. At the completion of that he will begin the Franklin County sentence.

BERLIN (AP)—A potato famine fanned the anger of hungry East Germans against Communist misrule today.

This was an embarrassing new setback to the puppet East German government's attempt to overcome the passive resistance which continues to spread among its sullen workers.

Communist bosses fought this resistance with a frenzied mixture of new arrests, threats, promises, wage boosts, and propaganda

Letter to the Editor

July 23, 1953

Paul L. Roy, Editor, The Gettysburg Times, Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

In The Gettysburg Times of July 21, we see that the Battlefield Guides are again subjected to public criticism.

The Battlefield Guides' Association was formed to work with the Park office and with all people who are interested in the tourist trade in Gettysburg.

For the last 35 years or more in which the guides' service has been in operation, we have conducted people of all walks of life over the Battlefield and have been told by a great many of them how much they enjoyed their trip over the field. Many of the tourists have spoken to the guides after the completion of the field tour about the fine impression of the battlefield they received from the guides. They also have complimented the guides on the knowledge we have of the battle here.

We have entertained people from (Continued on Page 8)

Dangerous Dollars

FBI Undercover Agent Matt Cvetic helps the FBI uncover a large amount of "Red" money going to Communist MVD agent for use in a sabotage ring in the "I WAS A COMMUNIST FOR THE FBI" broadcast over station WGET Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Because he is believed to be a faithful party member, Cvetic is able to visit a Communist-run hangout, the Skyline Rancho, where the notorious MVD agent, Krasnov, is hiding. The agent is important because he is instrumental in distributing big money in the party. Cvetic is to aid in his capture, for the FBI must know the use of these funds.

While supposedly enjoying a vacation, he encounters a charming girl, a party comrade named Connie. Feeling that she knows Krasnov's identity, Cvetic becomes friends with Connie and convinces her that he is a hard-working and trustworthy party member. Trying to trick Connie, he tells her of a coming FBI raid. She becomes frightened and tells him that the money which Krasnov has must not be found, for it is to be used to Tune in WGET Sunday night at 7 o'clock to hear the thrilling climax to this true story.

Here And There News Collected At Random

As a boy, Horace Greeley was fascinated by the printed word. It was natural, therefore, that at the age of 15 he trudged the 11 miles from his home to East Poughkeepsie, Vermont, to become an apprentice in the printing shop of The Northern Spectator. Four years later, in the summer of 1830, the publication failed and young Greeley spent the ensuing year alternately working on his father's new farm near Erie, Pa., and in small country printing shops. When he could stand this unhappy life no longer, he set out for New York on foot and by canal boat arriving with his bundle of clothes and ten dollars on August 18, 1831.

Greeley's first year and a half in the great city found him occupied in various newspaper offices. Growing restless and weary of working for others, he decided it was time to launch his own business and between 1833 and 1840 he founded and published four different newspapers! They were far from being financial successes, but the eager young journalist gained much in good will and editorial experience.

Then, with $1,000 of borrowed capital, he established "The Tribune on April 10, 1841. Following a policy of laboring "to advance the interests of the people, and to promote their moral, social and political well-being . . ." Greeley fearlessly published the Tribune for three decades. He strongly opposed capital punishment ("the worst use a man could be put to was to hang him"), but he editorialized at length in favor of women's rights (including the right to wear bloomers!). WILL INCREASE STATE POLICE FORCE TO 1900

HARRISBURG (P)—Gov. John S. Fine today considered new legislation to increase Pennsylvania's state police force by 100, to a total of 1,900.

The House passed the bill unanimously in the Senate last night. Senate Democrats supported the measure although Sen. John H. Deitz, Democratic floor leader, said his party favored an increase of only another 100 men.

Deitz said the greater part of the new additions can be absorbed by Pennsylvania Turnpike duty alone, leaving few available additions for other duties.

The Senate previously had passed an identical bill increasing the force by 100 but this was shelved in the House while the Senate pushed the House bill.

Other Bills Approved

Other bills passed by the Senate yesterday were:

Make a deficiency appropriation of $9,585 to the Brandywine Battlefield Park Commission. (Sent to governor.)

License private detectives, investigators and guards. (Sent back to House for agreement on amendments.)

Add to the Department of Labor and Industry an advisory council on affairs of the handicapped. (Sent to governor.)

Limit bonded indebtedness of the state public school building authority to 125 million dollars. (Sent to House.)

Permit the purchase by the commonwealth of steel and cement at market prices rather than contract prices. (Sent to House.)

Provide for the observance of Charter Day on March 15, the anniversary of the day on which William Penn received his royal charter for the territory that is now Pennsylvania. (Sent to governor.)

Create a Pennsylvania Tunnel Commission to provide for the construction of highway tunnels in Pennsylvania, financed by bond issues and tolls. (Sent to governor.)

Amend the constitution to exempt persons on relief from state taxation and also persons over 60 receiving social security or pension benefits and those over 65 from per capita or occupation taxes. (Sent to governor.)

FINDS FORMER SALEMAN IS M. C.

WASHINGTON (P)—A Tyro, Pa., manufacturer, appearing before a House committee, learned quite by accident yesterday that one of his former salesmen now is a member of Congress.

George C. Wilson, of the Wilson Chemical Co., was appearing before the House Post Office Committee to protest against proposed rate increases. He was telling the committee his company sells salve through youthful salesmen who are given prizes for their efforts.

At this point, Rep. Charles S. Gubser (R-Calif.) interrupted to ask if Wilson's company manufactured a certain trademarked salve.

Wilson said yes.

"Well, that's fine I got for a prize for selling salve about 30 years ago wasn't worth a darn," complained Gubser, smiling.

"We'll send you another one," Wilson assured him.

GOP Is Split Over Tariff Protection

WASHINGTON (P)—The House in a vote that split the Republicans down the middle, last night killed a bill to increase tariff protection for American industry.

The 242-151 decision, a triumph for the free trade policies of the Eisenhower administration, was won chiefly with Democratic votes.

The bill was sponsored by Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.). It would have spelled out curbs on imports of foreign oil, lead, zinc and watches, and tacked toward higher tariffs or import ceilings in scores of other fields.

The test came on a motion to kill the bill by sending it back to the House Ways and Means Committee. Republicans divided 168-104 against the motion and thus against the administration position.

Plan New Group To Study Pay Scales

WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate passed and sent to the House last night a bill which could lead to an automatic pay raise for members of Congress, the vice president and federal judges.

The bill would set up an 18-member commission to fix new pay scales, after consideration of comparable salaries in private business and the sacrifices involved.

The commission would report back by next Jan. 15. If a recommended higher pay Congress could put the new scale into effect without further legislation. All that would be necessary would be to appropriate the money.

Members of Congress now get $15,000 a year in salary and expenses.

NEW YORK (P)—The stock market maintained a steady fall today with trading holding to a relatively high level. Most price changes were an eighth or so either way with many issues trading unchanged.

waged a terrific battle against slavery and oppression... had unbounded faith in the future America.

The eccentric editor's handwriting was notoriously poor. Going to a hotel one day, he first scratched out a telegram and then stepped into the barber shop where, according to his usual custom, he went to sleep in the chair. The telegraph office people tried in vain to read the message for transmission and so sent a boy to the barber shop to have Greeley's interpreter. Awakened by the boy, Greeley took the message believing it to be the answer to his dispatch. He scanned it for several moments and then piped in disgust, "What's blamed idiot wrote that?" Yes, Horace Greeley, great editor that he was, could not read his own handwriting!

In spite of his seeming rudeness to many of the callers who continually streamed into his office, Greeley had a warm, generous heart. He was known as a "soft touch" and he loaned or gave money to all comers whether they were rich or poor. Active, too, was freely given to those who desired it and his "Go west and grow up with the country" is forever linked with his name.

Dissatisfied with the administration of President Grant, Greeley used his powerful pen and newspaper against him. He became the nominee of the new Liberal Republican Party in 1872, but went down to defeat in the election which returned Grant to the White House. In failing health for some time, he died on November 29, 1872.

Many claimed that Horace Greeley died of a broken heart because he was defeated in his campaign for the presidency. It seems more nearly the truth that it was the constant overwork and the damage done to his newspaper through his candidacy which lost him thousands of subscribers; that hastened his death for the Tribune was the great journalist's very life... the "apple of his eye!"

WILL INCREASE STATE POLICE FORCE TO 1900

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine today considered new legislation to increase Pennsylvania's state police force by 100, to a total of 1,900.

The House-passed bill won unanimous approval in the Senate last night. Senate Democrats supported the measure although Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said his party favored an increase of still another 100 men.

Dent said the greater part of the new additions can be absorbed by Pennsylvania Turnpike duty alone, leaving few available additions for other duties.

The Senate previously had passed an identical bill increasing the force by 100 but this was shelved in the House while the Senate pushed the House bill.

Other Bills Approved

Other bills passed by the Senate yesterday would:

Make a deficiency appropriation of $9,385 to the Brandywine Battlefield Park Commission. (Sent to governor.)

License private detectives, investigators and guards. (Sent back to House for agreement on amendments.)

Add to the Department of Labor and Industry an advisory council on affairs of the handicapped. (Sent to governor.)

Limit bonded indebtedness of the state public school building authority to 125 million dollars. (Sent to House.)

Permit the purchase by the commonwealth of steel and cement at market prices rather than contract prices. (Sent to House.)

Provide for the observance of Charter Day on March 15, the anniversary of the day on which William Penn received his royal charter for the territory that is now Pennsylvania. (Sent to governor.)

Create a Pennsylvania Tunnel Commission to provide for the construction of highway tunnels in Pennsylvania, financed by bond issues and tolls. (Sent to governor.)

Amend the constitution to exempt persons on relief from state taxation and also persons over 60 receiving social security or pension benefits and those over 65 from per capita or occupation taxes. (Sent to governor.)

FINDS FORMER SALEMAN IS M. C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Tyrone, Pa., manufacturer, appearing before a House committee, learned quite by accident yesterday that one of his former salesmen now is a member of Congress.

George C. Wilson, of the Wilson Chemical Co., was appearing before the House Post Office Committee to protest against proposed rate increases. He was telling the committee his company sells valve through youthful salesmen who are given prizes for their efforts.

At this point, Rep. Charles S. Gubser (R-Calif.) interrupted to ask if Wilson's company manufactured a certain trademarked valve.

Wilson said yes.

"Well, that air rifle I got (as a prize for selling valve) about 30 years ago wasn't worth a darn," complained Gubser, smiling.

"We'll send you another one," Wilson assured him.

WIFE-INDUCED "CONFESSION" CLEARS ROBBERY

YPSILANTI, Mich. (AP)—Two young men, one from Paxinos, Pa., have been cleared of complicity in a gasoline station robbery because a woman forced her husband to admit the theft.

The youths, cleared of charges of breaking and entering in the July 6 burglary, at nearby Willow Village were Ronald R. Kasner, 20, of Paxinos, and 18-year-old Donald J. Donovan of Worcester, Mass.

Fled In Auto

Mrs. Guy J. Protano of Worcester, made her husband confess the crime, state police said. Police said Protano told them it happened this way:

Protano, Donovan, Kasner, and Selden Washburn, of Worcester, were driving to California when they ran out of money. While Donovan and Kasner slept in the back seat, Protano and Washburn broke into a gas station.

Police were called and the robbers fled in their car, but wrecked it. Protano and Washburn ran away but Donovan and Kasner were arrested. They protested in vain they knew nothing about a burglary.

Told Her Whole Story

Their arguments might have been in vain had it not been for Protano's wife. When he returned she asked him about the "trip" and he told her the whole story.

Protano, who returned to Ypsilanti, told officers his wife told him "she could take me back only if I squared things here."

Protano is being held in the county jail at Ann Arbor. Washburn was arrested by Worcester authorities but has since been released on $1,000 bond pending trial on another breaking and entering charge.

Plan New Use For Indiantown Gap

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate has sent an appeal to the federal government to permit operation of a rehabilitation center for handicapped workers at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.

The request was made in a resolution adopted unanimously in the upper chamber yesterday. The resolution was sponsored by Sen. James S. Berger (R-Potter).

The same idea was also urged by Secretary David M. Walker of the State Department of Labor and Industry. Walker noted that the military reservation is to be abandoned by the U. S. Army as a training base on Sept. 1.

Agree On Bill To Liquidate R.F.C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate-House conferees have agreed on a bill to dissolve the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and create a Small Business Administration with lending power of 275 million dollars.

RFC, set up 21 years ago in depression days, would lose its power to make loans 60 days after the bill became law. It would continue in liquidation until next June 30.

The bill is subject to final approval by the Senate and House and the President.

Permit Champ Court Tilt In Farm Bldg.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House today passed a bill that would permit the playing of high school championship basketball games at the State Farm Show Arena in Harrisburg.

An amendment was approved yesterday to a Senate-passed bill appropriating $75,000 for the purchase of additional parking space at the arena to add $20,000 for the purchase of a portable basketball floor. The bill now returns to the Senate for action on the floor amendment.

Quebec Police Seek Slayer Of 3 Bear Hunters; Case Labeled 'Cold-blooded, Planned Murder'

GASPE, Que. (AP) — Quebec police today sought the human killer of three Pennsylvania hunters whose fleshless, bear-gnawed bones have been found deep in the rugged, mountainous Gaspé Peninsula after a 3-week search.

"Murder, cold-blooded and planned" was the report last night of the Quebec Attorney-General's Department after discovery of the chewed remains of the last two victims. Robbery was believed the motive, since no trace was found of $700 in cash, two expensive rifles, binoculars and most of the equipment they were known to have carried.

Police hinted an arrest was imminent but were mum on suspects. Woodsmen went back into the bush today seeking more clues.

Find Youth's Bones

The men, all from Hollidaysburg, Pa., went into the remote area, 65 miles from here, without local guides on June 12 to shoot bears. They were Eugene H. Lindsey, 45, whose skeletal, skull-less remains were found last week; his son Richard, 17, and Fred Claar, 20.

The youths' bones were discovered yesterday at an abandoned logging camp four miles from another camp which had yielded the remains of the elder Lindsey. Both sites were criss-crossed by bear tracks. The bush country lies along an upper branch of the St. Jean River, far from the picturesque coastal road familiar to many American tourists.

Only one skull was found. A medical expert said he believed bears could have eaten the two missing heads.

Bullet Hole In Shirt

Police said a set of upper teeth were found and were believed to have been Claar's. Nearby was a white sweatshirt with the words "Hollidaysburg Tigers." A white sweater was stained with dried blood and with a small, circular hole, as it made by a bullet.

Widely scattered about were rib bones, parts of spinal columns, leg and arm bones. Two hip bones were found on the far side of the stream. Strawn about were bits of chewed clothing, a watch believed to have been young Lindsey's and other small possessions.

Searchers said none of the bones appeared to have been broken by human violence but all had been gnawed and dragged about, apparently by bears which followed up the murderer.

Alarm After 3 Weeks

Relatives and friends of the hunters in Hollidaysburg and near-by Altoona, Pa., pressed for a complete investigation of the killings. A group of Altoona sportsmen last night urged that the famed Royal Canadian Mounted Police be assigned to the probe. The group said it would wire Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.), urging him to ask the State Department and the FBI to enlist the Mounties' aid.

The hunters left their Pennsylvania home June 5, to be gone two weeks. Their relatives set up the alarm when no word was heard from them three weeks later. Police began a wide search.

ADJOURNMENT AT HARRISBURG DELAYED AGAIN BY DEADLOCK

HARRISBURG (AP)—A joint House-Senate conference committee waded through a House reapportionment plan today to bring out any last laws that would flunk it in a court test.

The committee went to work on the deadlocked proposal as lawmakers pushed back from tomorrow to Monday their plans to adjourn finally.

Chairman Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong) of the Senate Reapportionment Committee predicted the joint unit will have its report ready by nightfall.

Chance For Passage

"Although the House and Senate is technically in disagreement on the bill, there's an excellent chance it will pass before we adjourn Monday," Pechan told a newsman.

The six-man conference committee, in its final check of the measure, is eyeing the fate of a legislative reapportionment bill passed in 1937 but thrown out by the courts because a township was overlooked in listing Pennsylvania's municipalities.

"We don't want that to happen this year—and I don't think it will," said Pechan.

Find One Error

One error already has been found. It involved Ellwood City which straddles the Beaver-Lawrence County line.

Senate amendments Wednesday night listed the community in Lawrence County but made no provision for the section in Beaver County.

Pechan also said the conference group will give a second look at a special provision—new in reapportionment legislation—designed to keep the remainder of the law in force should one section be found faulty.

17 Counties Change

Under that clause, a defect in municipal boundaries within a county would result in (1) keeping the present redistricting arrangement if the total representation from the county is unchanged or (2) electing the entire delegation on a countywide basis if the number of representatives from the county is increased or decreased. Nine counties would see their representation increased and eight counties decreased under the present plan. The total House membership would go up from 208 to 210.

Tomorrow's adjournment deadline was changed to next Monday after House Republicans pushed for a floor vote an administration-backed plan to increase maximum unemployment compensation benefits from $30 a week to $32.50.

and the State CIO Council, requires at least five legislative days for passage. Adjournment tomorrow would have precluded that possibility.

The House already is in position to vote finally on companion measures to boost from $30 a week to $32.50 the maximum payments for workmen's compensation and occupational disease.

In another development, the Legislature completed final action and sent to Gov. John S. Fine an administration-supported program to establish minimum standards for child adoption agencies in Pennsylvania.

Big Task Ahead

The legislation also defines, for the first time, abandonment in child adoption cases.

The immense task of shaping up a host of changes in the $802 million dollar appropriations bill was expected to last until the closing hours of the 1953 session.

Chairman Norman Wood (R-Lancaster) of the House Appropriations Committee said Democratic objections to a 25½ million dollar cut in the governor's budget are creating technical difficulties.

SENATE OKAYS AIR FORCE CUT

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of Defense, Wilson have won their long battle to cut funds and target goals of the Air Force.

Without a record vote, the Senate late yesterday shouted approval of a bill carrying $34,434,140,500 to operate the defense establishment for the fiscal year which began July 1.

The real tests had come earlier after lengthy and at times angry debate.

First, by a 55-38, roll call, the Senate rejected an effort by Sen. Maybank (D-SC) to give the Air Force an additional 400 million dollars to order 200 B47 jet bombers, capable of delivering atomic bombs.

This was the big test, since it was the first to come to a vote. Republican lines held firm against the increase and they picked up 9 valuable Democratic votes to add to the 46 GOP ones. Voting for Maybank's amendment were 37 Democrats and 1 Independent.

JAMBOREE ENDS FOR BOY SCOUTS

JAMBOREE CITY, Calif. (AP)—It won't be long before the rabbits, deer and sheep take back this 3,000 acres of ranch land, and the 1953 third National Boy Scout Jamboree will live only in memory for the whopping army of boys who made it their camp for a week.

The great encampment of American youth and leaders — 45,000 strong—ended officially last night with a final show in the outdoor arena. Today the boys, laden with their swapping souvenirs, are fanning out in a mass exodus to their homes.

It will take four days to empty the encampment on this Southern California ranch near Newport Beach. Today 688 buses were working to deliver boys to special trains leaving from the nearby points of East Los Angeles, Puente Santa Ana and Fullerton. Departures the first day were scheduled to total 21,531, by special trains and overland buses. There will be other daily departures through Monday.

Soon most of the traces of this gigantic tent city will be gone. The Irvine Ranch Company again will use Big Canyon for sheep grazing.

Report Red Marshal Of North Korea Leans Toward Red China

TOKYO (AP) — Marshal Kim Il Sung, the fat boss of Red North Korea, was reported by Korean sources today to be turning out Korean Communists leaning toward Russia and favoring party members who put Communist China first.

At least three members of Kim's Cabinet were reported purged: Foreign Minister Park Hun Yung, Justice Minister Lee Sung Yup, Vice Premier Hu Ka Wee. All are Koreans.

One In Jail Park Hun Yung was reported in a Communist jail after being purged three months ago. He was formerly head of the Communist party in South Korea until his defection to the North in 1946.

What happened to the other two Cabinet members was hidden behind the Bamboo Curtain and the mists of war. In Seoul, South Korean Home Minister Chun Hun Shik said Intelligence reports received there indicated Kim, whose real name is Kim Song Ju, is throwing out Red Koreans favoring Russia and backing Korean Communists favoring Red China.

Confusing Reports It was confusing because other Korean sources said Park Hun Yung favored Red China and this stand cost him his job. There was no way to reconcile the conflicting reports.

Home Minister Chun Hun Shik said the chairman of the North Korean Peoples Supreme Committee, Kim Toong Bong, had won the favor of Marshal Kim.

There were other reports that Marshal Kim, whom the South Koreans call an impostor, was close to Lavrenty Beria, the deposed secret police chief of Russia.

Start Remodeling of Eagle Hotel: Extensive remodeling of the Eagle Hotel was begun this week by I. H. Grouse and Sons, Littleton, Pa., under the direction of George P. Eberhart, proprietor.

The work includes the razing of the 22-year-old northeast section of the four-story building, which had enclosed about 75 hotel rooms. The space which that wing of the building now occupies will later be developed as a garage and parking space for hotel and Eberhart apartment automobiles.

The western section of the main building's second and third floors will be converted into ten modernly equipped and completely redecorated apartments. The first floor of that section, now occupied by the hotel dining room, will be partitioned into up-to-date offices which will be occupied early this fall by the staff of the Adams County Public Assistance board, which is now quartered in several rooms at the front of the hotel.

Instead of the present total of 155 hotel rooms only about 65 rooms and the hotel and reception rooms at the front of the building will be retained in use for hotel purposes.

Planning and the heating plant will be installed by Frank Monick, Gettysburg.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
THE CHARACTER OF A TREE

What a strange and dreary world this would be without its trees! Shade for man and beast; but, more than this, trees create value for the land and guard it like a policeman! With our forests gone, the life and living of people would be somewhat like living upon the desert. The Creator was always in giving to us our forests, but man has been greedy and thoughtless in the way that he destroys so many for mere gain.

I was never so inspired and humbled as when I first looked upon the great trees of California—the proud and majestic redwoods. I felt very humble at their base and I thought of the centuries that many of them had been growing. They have served man well. But it takes a long time to grow a great tree.

I write this Talk in my Nova Scotia Island retreat, surrounded by beautiful pines, hemlocks, maples, and white birches. Each tree has character. Through the light shades the morning sun edges its brilliant beauty, and at nightfall shadows cover them up as though a velvet blanket had been drawn across them. Then it is that I meditate and wish that every tree had a voice.

There are no more beautiful trees than those graceful elms in the older towns of New England. There is a dignity about them that stirs one's imagination and admiration as they throw out their arms like a welcome. It is as though they spread those arms to bless every visitor and every home owner in the place. No matter where located, every tree is a blessing.

Trees breathe. They have a circulatory system quite like that in man, and the sap of the tree works its way to the faintest of leaf life. In the autumn a most beautiful picture is shown in a dead leaf, with its intricate formation. Few things in nature are more beautiful. Every human being should plant at least one tree in his lifetime.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Spirit."

TANKER BURSTS INTO FLAME AT DELAWARE DOCK; CREWMAN DIES

By BILL LOFTUS
WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — The 9,170-ton tanker Pan Georgia burst into flames last night as its crew completed unloading 110,000 gallons of high octane gasoline and fuel oil at a Delaware River dock here.

One crew member, Ray Ott, a second assistant engineer from Galveston, Tex., is missing and presumed dead. Ship officers said he apparently drowned after leaping overboard in the flurry of excitement which swept the ship.

Coast Guardsmen and Wilmington firemen used grappling hooks in a search for his body.

Of the other crew members, 24 were rescued by Coast Guard and Army engineer rescue boats and brought to Red Cross headquarters in Wilmington. Another eight were admitted to Delaware Hospital where two are in critical condition from burns.

Eight others, including Capt. Morgan A. Maxey, 36, of Port Arthur, Tex., stayed on board to battle the flames.

2nd Tragedy In Month It was the second tragedy in little more than a month involving bulk carriers vessels. On June 6, the Pan Massachusetts and The Phoenix collided at Port Penn, 15 miles south of here, causing a spectacular fire and taking three lives.

Joseph H. Boland, 55, of Galveston, Tex., a member of the ship's mess, said he believed the fire started when a spark from a tugboat standing alongside the ship blew into an open hold of the tanker, touching off gasoline fumes.

The tug boat was preparing to pull the tanker from its dock into the river for a return voyage to Texas City, Tex.

New potatoes were marked $1 a bushel; sweet corn was in demand at 25 and 30 cents a dozen, although much of the corn offered showed the effects of dry weather during the growing period.

A high of 28 cents a dozen was quoted on eggs this morning. Butter was 30 cents a pound. Live young Plymouth Rock chickens were 24 cents a pound and 40 cents a pound dressed. Dressed old fowl brought 35 cents a pound.

Les Brown Band At Hershey Saturday

Les Brown, the Tower City native, brings his orchestra to Hershey Park for his annual visit on Saturday evening. Brown's parents, who still reside in Tower City, will be among those on hand to hear him and his brother, "Stumpy," who is a featured performer with the band.

Jo Ann Greer, a newcomer to the Brown organization, will be heard on the vocals. Miss Greer's singing voice is well known to movie fans, having been dubbed in for Rita Hayworth in "Affair in Trinidad" and "Miss Sadie Thompson."

Free concerts on Sunday afternoon and evening in the park band shell will be played by the United States Army Field Band, Maj. Chester Whiting conducting. The band will be heard from 2 until 4 and 7 until 9 o'clock.

Scout's Phone Call Fails To Cheer Lonely Shepherd Dog

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A long-distance telephone call can be sad-dening or joyful or it can be an enigma—as in the case of Allgretta.

Allgretta is the 2-year-old German Shepherd dog which has had a lonely existence since July 9 when her master, 16-year-old Eddie Rauss, went off to the National Boy Scout Jamboree in California. Up until yesterday, the dog refused to leave the station wagon that took her master to the railroad station. There she sat day after day on an old pair of Eddie's trousers, watching the road leading to the Rauss' home near Doylestown for a sign of her master.

Yesterday Eddie telephoned and spent several minutes talking to the dog, trying to cheer her up. Ear phones were placed on Allgretta's head. The telephone company even came up with a loud speaker so Eddie's voice could be heard without the ear piece.

Finally, after the dog failed to respond to his words—with one exception when she cocked her ears—Eddie whistled. Allgretta showed she recognized her master's call by jerking her head up.

But when the call was over she whined and looked around the news room of the Doylestown Daily Intelligencer, where the call was placed. She couldn't find Eddie. She was as bewildered and lonely as ever.

Price of Silk Mill Cut; Bond Sale Continues — Launching the final drive to reopen the Gettysburg silk throwing plant by September 1, members of the local bond sales committee and the owners met Monday evening in the Hotel Gettysburg.

Miss morning Ralph Z. Oyler, chairman of the committee handling the bond sales, explained the recent delay in the re-opening of the local industry by stating that negotiations for a reduction in the purchase price have been underway. He stated that the reduction has been accomplished and carries with it a $10,000 cut in the size of the bond issue to be disposed of locally. "It is the intention of the committee to give every interested citizen an opportunity to purchase bonds," Oyler said, "not only because they are a sound investment, but also because they will have a part in providing work for approximately 250 people and in restoring a $3,000

By BILL LOFTUS

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — The 9,179-ton tanker Pan Georgia burst into flames last night as its crew completed unloading 110,000 gallons of high octane gasoline and fuel oil at a Delaware River dock here.

One crew member, Ray Ott, a second assistant engineer from Galveston, Tex., is missing and presumed dead. Ship officers said he apparently drowned after leaping overboard in the flurry of excitement which swept the ship. Coast Guardsmen and Wilmington firemen used grappling hooks in a search for his body.

24 Rescued

Of the other crew members, 24 were rescued by Coast Guard and Army engineer rescue boats and brought to Red Cross headquarters in Wilmington. Another eight were admitted to Delaware Hospital where two are in critical condition from burns.

Eight others, including Capt. Morgan A. Maxey, 36, of Port Arthur, Tex., stayed on board to battle the flames.

2nd Tragedy In Month

It was the second tragedy in little more than a month involving bulk carriers vessels. On June 6, the Pan Massachusetts and The Phoenix collided at Port Penn, 15 miles south of here, causing a spectacular fire and taking three lives.

Joseph H. Boland, 55, of Galveston, Tex., a member of the ship's mess, said he believe the fire started when a spark from a tugboat standing alongside the ship blew into an open hold of the tanker, touching off gasoline fumes.

The tug boat was preparing to pull the tanker from its dock into the river for a return voyage to Texas City, Tex.

Fruit Is Mart Leaders' Bases: Ignore Showers: Continual morning showers failed to cut attendance at the Farmer's Market today. Fruit sold well with peaches bringing 10 cents a quart box and 25 cents a half peck. Apples in several early varieties brought ten cents a quarter peck and 15 cents a half peck. New potatoes were marked $1 a bushel; sweet corn was in demand at 25 and 30 cents a dozen, although much of the corn offered showed the effects of dry weather during the growing period.

A high of 28 cents a dozen was quoted on eggs this morning. Butter was 30 cents a pound. Live young Plymouth Rock chickens were 24 cents a pound and 40 cents a pound dressed. Dressed old fowl brought 35 cents a pound.

Les Brown Band At Hershey Saturday

Les Brown, the Tower City native, brings his orchestra to Hershey Park for his annual visit on Saturday evening. Brown's parents, who still reside in Tower City, will be among those on hand to hear him and his brother, "Stumpy," who is a featured performer with the band.

Brown, who has fronted one of the nation's top dance orchestras since he graduated from Duke University, operates on the principle that every member of his group should get into the act before the evening is over. As a result, Toni Rizzi, guitarist; Geoff Clarkson, pianist; Dave Pell, oboeist, and Don Paladino, trumpeter, have their moments throughout every engagement.

Jo Ann Greer, a newcomer to the Brown organization, will be heard on the vocals. Miss Greer's singing voice is well known to movie fans, having been dubbed in for Rita Hayworth in "Affair in Trinidad" and "Miss Sadie Thompson."

Free concerts on Sunday afternoon and evening in the park bandshell will be played by the United States Army Field Band, Maj. Chester Whiting conducting. The band will be heard from 2 until 4 and 7 until 9 o'clock.

Scout's Phone Call Fails To Cheer Lonely Shepherd Dog

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A long-distance telephone call can be sadening or joyful or it can be an enigma—as in the case of Allgretta. Allgretta is the 2-year-old German Shepherd dog which has had a lonely existence since July 9 when her master, 16-year-old Eddie Rauss, went off to the National Boy Scout Jamboree in California. Up until yesterday, the dog refused to leave the station wagon that took her master to the railroad station. There she sat day after day on an old pair of Eddie's trousers, watching the road leading to the Rauss' home near Doylestown for a sign of her master.

Yesterday Eddie telephoned and spent several minutes talking to the dog, trying to cheer her up. Ear phones were placed on Allgretta's head. The telephone company even came up with a loud speaker so Eddie's voice could be heard without the ear piece.

Finally, after the dog failed to respond to his words—with one exception when she cocked her ears—Eddie whistled. Allgretta showed she recognized her master's call by jerking her head up.

But when the call was over she whined and looked around the news room of the Doylestown Daily Intelligencer, where the call was placed. She couldn't find Eddie. She was as bewildered and lonely as ever.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosensteel were: Mr. and Mrs. T. Eugene Rodgers and son, Fairfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Voemans, Attorney and Mrs. Frank Schmidt and children, Susan, Charles and Elizabeth, Los Angeles, Calif., recently spent their vacation with Mrs. Schmidt's mother, Mrs. Sara Heke, and aunt, Miss Emma Jane Miller.

3-Year-Old Rides 10 Miles On Bumper

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP) — Red light flashing and siren screaming, State Patrolman Kenneth Thomason chased a pickup truck for two miles south of here last night. When he finally halted Mrs. Albert Lynes, the Lynes' 3-year-old daughter, Mary Margaret, climbed from the front bumper of the truck and greeted her parents.

Thomason said the tot evidently had ridden on the front of the truck for 10 miles at speeds between 45 and 50 m.p.h. The parents thought the girl was home in bed.

Braves To Invade Ebbets Field For 4-Game Series; Yankees Lose Third Straight To Indians 10-2

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

It takes a brave team to invade Ebbets Field these days so Milwaukee opens a 4-game series in the home of the Brooklyn Dodgers tonight.

This is another of those "do or die" clashes that keep popping up all season. The Dodgers feel they've got the Braves on the ropes by now with a 5-2 game lead and the season moving rapidly toward the two-thirds mark.

A 4-game Brooklyn sweep would pretty well write an unhappy ending to the first edition of Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee Fair Tale. Although even a first division club probably will be welcome in the strike-bound brewery center which has gone hog wild over major league ball, a first year winner would have been mighty nice.

Have Edge In Brooklyn
The Braves aren't through yet and they may be just the team to cool off the Dodgers who have won 10 of their last 11. Milwaukee is the only club in the league with a season's edge over the Dodgers in Brooklyn, having won three of the five games played there so far.

Both Brooklyn and the Braves were rained out yesterday so they'll go into tonight's game with a well-earned day of rest. The Dodgers were supposed to play Chicago and Milwaukee was scheduled at Philadelphia. The rain also cut short the St. Louis Cardinals' series with the New York Giants. Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 7-0 in the only National League game played.

3rd Straight For Indians
The big noise in the American League was the collapse of the New York Yankees in Cleveland for the third straight game. This time the World Champions looked like real country bumpkins as they were whipped, 10-2.

The Chicago White Sox muffed their chance to close in on the Yankees when they bowed to Boston, 4-3. The White Sox trail by 4½ games.

Detroit's slumbering Tigers popped up with a 4-game winning streak, taking a pair from Washington 9-6 in 10 innings and 5-4. The victories moved the Tigers within half a game of the seventh place St. Louis Browns who lost to Philadelphia, 7-4, in 14 innings.

15th Win For Wynn
The Yankees tried a couple of their young pitchers against Cleveland and the Indians battered them for 14 hits and 10 runs in the first six innings. Tom Gorman made his first start and lasted into the fifth inning. Art Schallcock took two and gave up five runs, four of them unearned because of an error by first baseman Don Bollweg.

Home runs figured strongly in the Cleveland victory. George Strickland hit one with two on and Al Rosen with the bases empty in the fifth. Luke Easter opened the scoring with one in the second. Early Wynn posted his 10th victory.

At Chicago, Hector (Skinny) Brown came back to haunt his old White Sox teammates with a 4-hitter for his seventh straight victory. He gave up two runs without a hit in the second inning when he walked three men. He then pitched hitless ball from the fourth until Jim Rivera hit a home run in the ninth.

He did with first division Cleveland. Ray Boone, who says he likes it better with last place Detroit than he did with first division Cleveland, hit a 3-run homer in the 10th inning for the Tigers' first game victory over Washington. Home runs by Jim Deising and Bob Neman, and a timely 2-run single by Gerry Friddy helped Ted Gray win his fifth game in the nightcap.

The Athletics solved Sam Rice's relief efforts for four hits and three runs in the 14th to win their marathon at St. Louis. Eddie Robinson brought home two of the talles with a triple.

Harry Perkowski won his eighth game for Cincinnati as he scattered eight hits for the shutout. The loss was the 13th for little Murry Dickson.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
PITCHING — Hector (Skinny) Brown of the Red Sox won his seventh straight and his 10th of the season with a four-hitter against Chicago 4-3.

BATTING — Luke Easter, Cleveland Indians, hit a 450 foot home run and a single, driving in two runs, in the Indians' 10-2 rout of the New York Yankees.

Fort Worth Greet Ben Hogan Today

FORT WORTH, Tex., (AP) — Fort Worth welcomes its favorite golfer son, world conqueror Ben Hogan, today with its greatest show for a returning athletic hero.

The little man of the links great moments may have gotten a bigger welcome along ticker-tape strewn New York Tuesday but it's doubtful if the big town will have produced as much noise and speech-making as are destined to greet the National Open and British Open Champion when he flies into Fort Worth this afternoon.

Here where golf's "Little Icicle" got his start shagging balls at Glen Garden Country Club a quarter-century ago, they'll tell him how proud they are to be his home folks.

PORKY OLIVER IN EARLY LEAD

KANSAS CITY (AP) — No matter who wins the $17,500 Kansas City Open Golf Tournament Ed (Porky) Oliver is a cinch to continue as the people's choice right through the last hole of the final round.

The chubby wisecracking veteran from Palm Springs, Calif., who has played in all five of the open events here, started the second round with a one stroke lead over four other capable shooters.

Oliver's 7-under-par 65 over the hard, fast 6,500-yard Mulburn Country Club course yesterday followed by an hour the 66s laid down by Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill.; Al Bessellink, Grossinger, N. Y.; Buster Mills, Kansas City, and Earl Stewart, Jr., Dallas.

Holds Course Record
Few of the better players had any difficulty with par 72 in the first round as more than one third of the 149 starters equalled or beat the mark.

While the watered greens played as difficult as any, the fairways carried many added yards because of the dry stretch.

Oliver set the course record of 62 in the 1950 tournament, but he's never been able to win the top prize.

Art Wall Jr. of Pocono, Pa., shot a 35-35—70.

AWARD TURNER VERDICT OVER JOHN LOMBARDO

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Philadelphia's Ed Turner, 153½, last night hammered out a unanimous decision over free-swinging Johnny Lombardo, 150, Mount Carmel, Pa., in an eight round bout at the Hershey Sports Arena.

On hand to witness the return bout between Lombardo and the second ranking contender for the welterweight crown were 2,420 fans who paid $8.34 to witness the battle.

Using his one-inch reach advantage to jab Lombardo off balance in the first two rounds, the 23-year-old Turner appeared to be coasting to his 38th ring victory in 41 starts.

But in the third round Lombardo gave Turner trouble with a series of jolting rights. For a moment the contest looked like a possible upset. Turner, however, noted for his recuperative powers, came back quickly and weathered the round.

After the third, the Philadelphiaan opened a savage attack that caught Lombardo with a flurry of lefts and rights that slowed the Coal Region slugger down.

Referee Tony Prince, Harrisburg, scored the bout 5-3 in favor of Turner, while Judge John Kelley had it 6-1 in favor of Turner with one even. Judge John Sand, scored the fight 3-1 in favor of Turner with four rounds even.

In their last meeting in May, Turner scored a seventh round TKO over Lombardo in New York.

Though it was the first professional fight in the 8,000 seat Hershey Arena in two years, the small turnout disappointed promoter Pete Moran.

Turner, following his victory last night, will now prepare for a scheduled 10-round go against Ramon Fuentes in Madison Square Garden, Aug. 12.

Crucial Games In Softball Tonight

Important games are listed tonight in the local Softball League. The Moose can clinch the regular season title by defeating the Texas Lunch in the opener at 7 o'clock.

On the other hand the Lunchmen, sorely need victory in their battle for a berth in the league playoffs.

The VFW, currently in third place, will engage the Eagles in the second game. The Eagles are out of all contention but could jeopardize the Vets' hopes with an upset.

Monday's games will bring the regular season to a close. Games that night will be: VFW vs. Leniz Legion, 7 o'clock, and G. L. Bream Garage vs. Eagles.

SP TEAMS WAGE TIGHT RACE; 4 PEN-MAR GAMES

With but three games remaining on the regular season schedule for all teams of the South Penn Baseball League, Sunday's contests take on increased importance in the tight battle for first place as well as positions to qualify for the playoffs.

Sunday's top game will be at Bonneauville where Brushtown will be the opponent. Bonneauville is tied for the league lead with Taneytown while Brushtown is deadlocked with Greenmount, two games behind.

Taneytown is a heavy favorite to keep on winning when it is host to winless Emmitsburg.

Greenmount invades Huncertown where the home team must win to retain its long chance for a first division berth. Bendersville, tied with Huncertown, will be host to seventh-place Harney.

Pen-Mar Schedule
Cashtown, which has been playing improved ball, will be serious threat to unbeaten Union Bridge when the teams clash at Union Bridge in the lead-in of the Pen-Mar program for Sunday.

New Oxford, tied with Emmitsburg for second place, journeys to Thurmont while Emmitsburg will entertain New Windsor, losers of all of its 14 games to date.

Completing the schedule will be the game between Blue Ridge Summit at Littlestown on the latter's field.

Scheduled games between the Elmira Pioneers and Albany Senators at Albany and the Schenectady Blue Jays and Binghamton Triplets at Binghamton were postponed.

Binghamton's rest, coupled with Reading's loss, cut the Indians' margin over the Triplets to three games.

A third measure passed by a unanimous Senate vote would provide for the revocation of hunting licenses for persons convicted of illegally killing deer and bear.

The bill was sent back to the House for agreement on minor amendments before going to the governor.

Under two other House bills the Department of Forests and Waters and the State Game Commission would be authorized to give out rights for construction of radio and television towers on state lands they control. The bill went to the governor.

LUCIANI LEADS PUBLIC LINKS GOLF TOURNEY

By DICK HOENIG
HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Another "steady round, savoring down the center without any gambling" was Johnny Luciani's today as he led the way into the second round of the 15th annual Pennsylvania Public Links Golf Tournament.

And if the 29-year-old Hershey Park Club snooker has such a round he'll be close to becoming the fourth man ever to twice win the title of best spare-time golfer in the state.

A near 35-36-71 yesterday, par for the 6,200 yard course, gave the 1951 Public Links champ a one stroke lead over the field of 126 in this year's three-day 39-hole event.

Results of today's 18 holes will send the low 39 qualifiers into tomorrow's 39-hole final.

Trailing Luciani with 72s were two more host club members, Stroz Sartori and Art Garrison. Sartori was runnerup in 1952, finishing a stroke in front of Luciani.

"I just played the whole thing safe, without taking any chances. No gambling for me; you couldn't the way the greens were," Luciani explained his pace-setting round.

"The course wasn't wet but needed cutting and the ball stopped dead on the greens. I'll be satisfied with another round like that one and I'll play it the same way, straight down the center and safe."

The only former Public Links finalist in the field (he won in 1951) after an opening round of 76, Luciani bagged a birdie on the 6th hole for a 35 and a stroke under par on his first nine. He lost a stroke on the 10th hole when he missed a 10-foot putt and made the each nine in 36, a stroke over par. He was just even with par on the other 16 holes.

Startout Shoots A 33
Sartori recovered from a three over par second hole to come in with a 33 on the back nine, two under par and the best shooting of the day.

Garrison, this year's president of the sponsoring Pennsylvania Public Links Golfers Assn., made his 72 with 36s on each nine.

Dominic Foscone, Sinking Spring, John Kline, Lancaster, Mike Hanson, Bethlehem, and Andy Voytk, Sharon, all stayed close with 73s.

The Hershey Park club, winner of the team title four of the last five years took a 13 stroke lead on its second leg of the U. S. Sen. James H. Duff Trophy. Luciani, Sartori, Garrison and Paul Garrison, Art's brother with a 74, totaled 238 strokes.

Great Britain is exporting over half of all cars she produces and almost half of all trucks.

Braves To Invade Ebbets Field For 4-Game Series; Yankees Lose Third Straight To Indians 10-2

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

It takes a Brave team to invade Ebbets Field these days so Milwaukee opens a 4-game series in the home of the Brooklyn Dodgers tonight.

This is another of those "do or die" clashes that keep popping up all season. The Dodgers feel they've got the Braves on the ropes by now with a 5½ game lead and the season moving rapidly toward the two-thirds mark.

A 4-game Brooklyn sweep would pretty well write an unhappy ending to the first edition of Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee Fair Tale. Although even a first division club probably will be welcome in the strike-bound brewery center which has gone hog wild over major league ball, a first year winner would have been mighty nice.

Have Edge In Brooklyn
The Braves aren't through yet and they may be just the team to cool off the Dodgers who have won 10 of their last 11. Milwaukee is the only club in the league with a season's edge over the Dodgers in Brooklyn, having won three of the five games played there so far.

Both Brooklyn and the Braves were rained out yesterday so they'll go into tonight's game with a welcome day of rest. The Dodgers were supposed to play Chicago and Milwaukee was scheduled at Philadelphia. The rain also cut short the St. Louis Cardinals' series with the New York Yankees. Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 7-0 in the only National League game played.

3rd Straight For Indians
The big noise in the American League was the collapse of the New York Yankees in Cleveland for the third straight game. This time the World Champions looked like real country bumpkins as they were swamped, 10-2.

The Chicago White Sox muffed their chance to close in on the Yanks when they bowed to Boston, 4-3. The White Sox trail by 4½ games.

Detroit's slumbering Tigers popped up with a 4-game winning streak, taking a pair from Washington 9-6 in 10 innings and 5-4. The victories moved the Tigers within half a game of the seventh place St. Louis Browns who lost to Philadelphia, 7-4, in 14 innings.

15th Win For Wynn
The Yankees tried a couple of their young pitchers against Cleveland and the Indians battered them for 14 hits and 10 runs in the first six innings. Tom Gorman made his first start and lasted into the fifth inning. Art Schallcock toiled two and gave up five runs, four of them unearned because of an error by first baseman Don Bollweg.

Home runs figured strongly in the Cleveland victory. George Strickland hit one with two on and Al Rosen with the bases empty in the fifth. Luke Easter opened the scoring with one in the second. Early Wynn posted his 10th victory.

At Chicago, Hector (Skinny) Brown came back to haunt his old White Sox teammates with a 4-hitter for his seventh straight victory. He gave up two runs without a hit in the second inning when he walked three men. He then pitched hitless ball from the fourth until Jim Rivera hit a home run in the ninth.

He did with first division Cleveland. Ray Boone, who says he likes it better with last place Detroit than he did with first division Cleveland hit a 3-run homer in the 10th inning for the Tigers' first game victory over Washington. Home runs by Jim Deling and Bob Nieman, and a timely 2-run single by Gerry Priddy helped Ted Gray win his fifth game in the nightcap.

The Athletics solved Satch Paige's relief efforts for four hits and three runs in the 14th to win their marathon at St. Louis. Eddie Robinson brought home two of the tallies with a triple.

Harry Perkowski won his eighth game for Cincinnati as he scattered eight hits for the shutout. The loss was the 13th for little Murry Dickson.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
PITCHING — Hector (Skinny) Brown of the Red Sox won his seventh straight and his 10th of the season with a four-hitter against Chicago 4-3.

BATTING — Luke Easter, Cleveland Indians, hit a 450 foot home run and a single, driving in two runs in the Indians' 10-2 rout of the New York Yankees.

Fort Worth Greets Ben Hogan Today

FORT WORTH, Tex., (AP) — Fort Worth welcomes its favorite golfer, world conqueror Ben Hogan, today with its greatest show for a returning athletic hero.

The little man of the links great moments may have gotten a bigger welcome along ticker-tape strewn New York Tuesday but it's doubtful if the big town will have produced as much noise and speech-making as are destined to greet the National Open and British Open Champion when he flies into Fort Worth this afternoon.

Here where golf's "Little Icicle" got his start shagging balls at Glen Garden Country Club a quarter century ago, they'll tell him how proud they are to be his home folks.

PORKY OLIVER IN EARLY LEAD

KANSAS CITY (AP) — No matter who wins the $17,500 Kansas City Open Golf Tournament Ed (Porky) Oliver is a cinch to continue as the people's choice right through the last hole of the final round.

The chubby wisecracking veteran from Palm Springs, Calif., who has played in all five of the open events here, started the second round with a one stroke lead over four other capable shooters.

Oliver's 7-under-par 65 over the hard, fast 6,500-yard Milburn Country Club course yesterday followed by an hour the 66s laid down by Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill.; Al Bessellink, Grossinger, N. Y.; Buster Mills, Kansas City, and Earl Stewart Jr., Dallas.

Holds Course Record
Few of the better players had any difficulty with par 72 in the first round as more than one third of the 149 starters equalled or beat the mark. While the watered greens played as difficult as any, the fairways carried many added yards because of the dry stretch.

Oliver set the course record of 62 in the 1950 tournament, but he's never been able to win the top prize.

Art Wall Jr. of Pocono, Pa., shot a 35-35—70.

AWARD TURNER VERDICT OVER JOHN LOMBARDO

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Philadelphia's Gil Turner, 153½, last night hammered out a unanimous decision over free-swinging Johnny Lombardo, 150, Mount Carmel, Pa. in an eight round bout at the Hershey Sports Arena.

On hand to witness the return bout between Lombardo and the second ranking contender for the welterweight crown were 2,420 fans who paid $8.347 to witness the battle.

Using his one-inch reach advantage to jab Lombardo off balance in the first two rounds, the 22-year-old Turner appeared to be coasting to his 38th ring victory in 41 starts.

But in the third round Lombardo gave Turner trouble with a series of jolting rights. For a moment the contest looked like a possible upset. Turner, however, noted for his recuperative powers, came back quickly and weathered the round.

After the third, the Philadelphiaan opened a savage attack that caught Lombardo with a flurry of lefts and rights that slowed the Coal Region slugger down.

Referee Tony Prince, Harrisburg, scored the bout 5-3 in favor of Turner, while Judge John Kelley had it 6-1 in favor of Turner with one even. Judge John Senti scored the fight 3-1 in favor of Turner with four rounds even.

In their last meeting in May, Turner scored a seventh round TKO over Lombardo in New York.

Though it was the first professional fight in the 8,000 seat Hershey Arena in two years, the small turnout disappointed Promoter Pete Moran.

Turner, following his victory last night, will now prepare for a scheduled 10-round go against Ramon Fuentes in Madison Square Garden, Aug. 12.

Crucial Games In Softball Tonight

Important games are listed tonight in the local Softball League.

The Moose can clinch the regular season title by defeating the Texas Lunch in the opener at 7 o'clock. On the other hand the lunchmen sorely need victory in their battle for a berth in the league playoffs.

The VFW, currently in third place, will engage the Eagles in the second game. The Eagles are out of all contention but could jeopardize the Vets' hopes with an upset.

Monday's games will bring the regular season to a close. Games that night will be: VFW vs. Lentz Legion, 7 o'clock, and G. L. Bream Garage vs. Eagles.

SP TEAMS WAGE TIGHT RACE; 4 PEN-MAR GAMES

With but three games remaining on the regular season schedule for all teams of the South Penn Baseball League, Sunday's contests take on increased importance in the tight battle for first place as well as positions to qualify for the playoffs.

Sunday's top game will be at Bonneauville where Brushstown will be the opposition. Bonneauville is tied for the league lead with Taneytown while Brushstown is deadlocked with Greenmount, two games behind.

Taneytown is a heavy favorite to keep on winning when it is host to winless Emmitsburg.

Greenmount invades Hunters-town where the home team must win to retain its long chance for a first division berth. Bendersville, tied with Hunters-town, will be host to seventh-place Harney.

Ex-Teacher, Former Wave, Plans Career In Obstetrics; Mother Of Twin Daughters Born In Feb.

A young Littlestown mother will have practical experience to add to her professional training if she goes ahead with present plans for a specialized career in medicine as an obstetrician.

Do you use a cream make-up?

Smart girl...especially if your skin is a little dry. But...does your cream make-up cover every flaw...without turning your face into a mask? Does it protect your skin from sun and wind? Does it stroke on in seconds...and last all day long? The answer's yes every time...if you use Pan-Stik, the creamy stick make-up by Max Factor. You just dot it on...then smooth it out. It's so light you can't tell it's on...yet you're lovelier than ever before!

Ex-Teacher, Former Wave, Plans Career In Obstetrics; Mother Of Twin Daughters Born In Feb.

A young Littlestown mother will have practical experience to add to her professional training if she goes ahead with present plans for a specialized career in medicine as an obstetrician.

Mrs. Leah Abel Maitland, 70 W. King St., Littlestown, who received her doctor of medicine degree from the Temple University School of Medicine in Philadelphia last month, is the mother of twin daughters born last February 5 at the Temple University Hospital.

Dr. Maitland is interning now at the York Hospital and living with her husband and two daughters in Littlestown. She is able to get home on alternate evenings.

Three Years In Navy
"My husband is a good baby sitter and he's been a wonderful help or I never would have been able to get through," she told a reporter for The Gettysburg Times.

Dr. Maitland was graduated from high school at Wrightsville, Pa., in 1939, and from the Thompson Business College at York in 1941. She taught commercial subjects in the Littlestown High School in the 1942-43 school year and then entered the WAVES where she served for three years.

The young ex-teacher, whose interests then lay in the field of physical education, was assigned to a staff personnel post with the Navy in Washington, D. C., and served in the field of physical education with much of her work being done as a swimming instructor.

Married In 1951

It was while she was in college after her Navy duty that she turned to the field of medicine for her career. She was graduated with highest honors and the bachelor of science degree from the Florida State University at Tallahassee, in 1949. There she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Gamma Sigma Delta, Alpha Lambda Delta and Alpha Epsilon Delta honorary fraternities and the Alpha Xi Delta social sorority. At Temple U. Medical School she was affiliated with Alpha Epsilon Iota.

She and Roy Maitland, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Maitland, W. King St., Littlestown, were married in June, 1951. Their twin daughters are Stephanie J. and Doris Barbara.

Mr. Maitland is employed in Baltimore as a hair stylist.

coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf. We have conducted people of high standing over the field, including congressmen, other government officials, lawyers, doctors, professors, teachers and all classes of the American public in addition to many visitors from other lands. In the military branches, we have been able to talk to the rank and file as well as the officers. We are frequently called upon to guide buses loaded with school pupils over the battlefield.

Many, many times the guides are thanked and complimented for their services. So I believe we are not as bad a lot as some folk would like to picture us. We are very sorry that our friend from McGettysburg was so badly used, because we could tell him of thousands of satisfied tourists who have seen the Gettysburg Battlefield with a member of our association as a guide.

We are not the kind of Gettysburg citizens to take advantage of anybody. If one business sells an inferior article, it should not be represented to the public that all Gettysburg businesses sell shoddy goods. All the guides should not be censured for what one guide does. I think the most of us are men of character and pay our bills and taxes in this community the same as anybody else.

So let's not forget there are a lot of virtues in the services rendered here by the Battlefield Guides and the part they play in bringing a great deal of business to our community.

GROWING IN CHRISTLIKENESS
Memory Verse: Speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, Ephesians 4:15

The apostle Paul found it advisable to write a letter to the church at Ephesus. He had done some of his most successful work there. At the time of his writing churches had been planted for miles around. Ephesus was the Christian center of the Roman empire. There were numerous congregations but the apostle was concerned about their spiritual growth. So also was the writer of the Revelations who said (Rev. 2:4) the love which prevailed at first was abandoned.

Churches are composed of people. Their character and conduct determine the character of any church. For this reason Paul urges those qualities which are so evident in Christ. He is the pattern for any who seek the truth, and the way of the spiritual and practical Christian life. This involves a constant development in understanding the great truths of religion and their application to personal and community life. Foremost of the virtues of any Christian life is love. Paul made that plain in his great hymn of love (I Corinthians 13). Where love prevails other virtues will follow and a oneness of spirit and purpose will be found among the followers of Jesus the Christ. Grandpa's Scrapbook

It's all there—in Grandpa's Scrapbook. The story of his life. His baptismal certificate, the newspaper clipping about his kicking that winning field goal, the now-yellowed wedding invitation, the snapshot of their house-warming, the announcement of Mama's birth, the blue ribbon that Grandpa's steer won at the county fair.

And, on a page all by itself, is a Children's Day program from our little Church, the day I sang "Jesus Loves Me" with Danny Andrews!

Grandpa always says, "That's the page I like best. It's a blessing to know yer grandson is goin' in the right direction."

And then with a far-away look in his eyes he says, "You keep up yer fine work in Sunday School, Lad. Whether yer kickin' a field goal, or plantin' yer corn, or servin' God in yer own humble way—you have to keep goin' in the right direction!"

The serious conditions of the present day have helped to bring this about.

Paul calls upon all men, whatever their abilities may be, to use them "for building up the body of Christ." He means the church which is representing Him on earth. It is heartening to see a congregation growing and spreading its influence in a neighborhood; a church which enlists the service of its members and directs that service to the support of all worthy Christian causes. Such a church will draw people with their needs for guidance or consolation. It will obtain more and more of the spiritual power that comes from an earnest seeking to know Jesus; for He is not only a pattern of the true way of life but a Power to aid the seeker to find it. A likeness to Christ is not acquired by one's own effort. It is a gift of God. The virtues and the grace of a life come from Him who planted them in the soul because of His surpassing love. "We love Him because he first loved us." (I John 4:19) A faithful reading of the Bible, and a contemplation of the compassionate life of Jesus will aid anyone to grow in the likeness of Him.

coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf. We have conducted people of high standing over the field, including congressmen, other government officials, lawyers, doctors, professors, teachers and all classes of the American public in addition to many visitors from other lands. In the military branches, we have been able to talk to the rank and file as well as the officers. We are frequently called upon to guide buses loaded with school pupils over the battlefield.

Many, many times the guides are thanked and complimented for their services. So I believe we are not as bad a lot as some folk would like to picture us. We are very sorry that our friend from McVeytown was so badly used, because we could tell him of thousands of satisfied tourists who have seen the Gettysburg Battlefield with a member of our association as a guide.

We are not the kind of Gettysburg citizens to take advantage of anybody. If one business sells an inferior article, it should not be represented to the public that all Gettysburg businesses sell shoddy goods. All the guides should not be censured for what one guide does. I think the most of us are men of character and pay our bills and taxes in this community the same as anybody else.

So let's not forget there are a lot of virtues in the services rendered here by the Battlefield Guides and the part they play in bringing a great deal of business to our community.

GROWING IN CHRISTLIKENESS

Memory Verse: Speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, Ephesians 4:15. The apostle Paul found it a advisable to write a letter to the church at Ephesus. He had done some of his most successful work there. At the time of his writing churches had been planted for miles around. Ephesus was the Christian center of the Roman empire. There were numerous congregations but the apostle was concerned about their spiritual growth. So also was the writer of Revelations who said (Rev. 2:4)

"You have abandoned the love you had at first."

That is history. But it has a repetition in much of our church life of today. Our country is well supplied with churches. In some communities over church. But they are not as effective as we have the right to expect them to be. The remedy? Growth in Christlikeness. Most congregations are established because of recognized need. The founders often give freely of their time and means and ability. It does not always continue on that high plane of Christian living and service. The reason? According to Revelations the love which prevailed at first was abandoned.

Churches are composed of people. Their character and conduct determine the character of any church. For this reason Paul urges those qualities which are so evident in Christ. He is the pattern for any who seek the truth, and the way of the spiritual and practical Christian life. This involves a constant development in understanding the great truths of religion and their application to personal and community life. Foremost of the virtues of any Christian life is love. Paul made that plain in his great hymn of love (1 Corinthians 13). Where love prevails other virtues will follow and a oneness of spirit and purpose will be found among the followers of Jesus the Christ. There is a growing interest in the fundamentals of the Christian religion, and also of their application. The serious conditions of the present day have helped to bring this about.

Paul calls upon all men, whatever their abilities may be, to use them "for building up the body of Christ." He means the church which is representing Him on earth. It is heartening to see a congregation growing and spreading its influence in a neighborhood; a church which enlists the service of its members and directs that service to the support of all worthy Christian causes. Such a church will draw people with their needs for guidance or consolation. It will obtain more and more of the spiritual power that comes from an earnest seeking to know Jesus; for He is not only a pattern of the true way of life but a Power to aid the seeker to find it. A likeness to Christ is not acquired by one's own effort. It is a gift of God. The virtues and the grace of a life come from Him who planted them in the soul because of His surpassing love. "We love Him because he first loved us." (1 John 4:19) A faithful reading of the Bible, and a contemplation of the compassionate life of Jesus will aid anyone to grow in the likeness of Him.

HAVE NEW PLAN FOR OLD SITES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee has given approval to a new plan for financing restoration of historical sites.

The innovation occurred when the committee approved a bill giving $10,000 for restoration of the Old Searight Toll House near Uniontown. Under the proposal the project will be turned over to a local organization for future upkeep—a new system.

The appropriation would restore the historic building on U. S. Route 40 but leave future maintenance up to the Westmoreland-Fayette Historical Society.

Also winning Senate Appropriations Committee approval yesterday were bills to put up $30,000 for continued restoration of the Ephrata Cloisters historical site and $25,000 for construction of a driveway and other facilities and equipment at the Daniel Boone birthplace in Berks County.

Committee approval also went to a $20,000 sum for improvements to the Bloomsburg State Teachers College and $21,000 for improvement of water facilities at the Phillipsburg State Hospital.

HAVE NEW PLAN FOR OLD SITES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee has given approval to a new plan for financing restoration of historical sites.

The innovation occurred when the committee approved a bill giving $10,000 for restoration of the Old Searight Toll House near Uniontown. Under the proposal the project will be turned over to a local organization for future upkeep—a new system.

The appropriation would restore the historic building on U. S. Route 40 but leave future maintenance up to the Westmoreland-Payette Historical Society.

Also winning Senate Appropriations Committee approval yesterday were bills to put up $30,000 for continued restoration of the Ephrata Cloisters historical site and $25,000 for construction of a driveway and other facilities and equipment at the Daniel Boone birthplace in Berks County.

Committee approval also went to a $20,000 sum for improvements to the Bloomsburg State Teachers College and $21,000 for improvement of water facilities at the Phillipsburg State Hospital.

THREE MEN HELD IN BOY'S DEATH AFTER BLAST

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Three men were held today without charges for questioning in the explosion of a vacant house in nearby Dunmore which brought fatal injuries to Robert J. Flynn, 17-year old Scranton youth.

Flynn, graduated last June from St. Anne's High School in Scranton, died last night in Scranton State Hospital.

William Murphy, state police fire marshal, said the explosion and fire in the house was a "definite case of arson."

Asked if the probe might lead to an eventual charge of murder, Carlton M. O'Malley, Lackawanna County district attorney, said: "Anyone who acts in concert in the commission of a felony where death results is liable to a charge of murder."

Find Bottle Of Gasoline

The house belongs to Mrs. Mary Toti of Lodi, N. J.

Young Flynn was found some two hours after the explosion lying along Route 611, about two miles from the house. Most of his clothes were burned off and he was in a critical condition.

Officers theorized that Flynn was in the house when the explosion occurred, and was either hurled through a window or leaped in desperation. Then he staggered along the road until he fell.
